Anchor's Funbrella 1-Year Warranty

Anchor Industries, Inc. warrants each Funbrella to be free from defects in material and workmanship under normal usage, assuming proper installation and reasonable maintenance for the 1-year period subsequent to the date the Funbrella is shipped to customer.

Such warranty does not cover fire, vandalism, contact with destructive chemicals, improper installation, abuse, neglect, acts of God or use for purposes other than as an umbrella.

If an adjustment is necessary, contact Anchor Industries. Permission to return to the factory must be obtained in writing. The Funbrella should be returned prepaid before warranty expiration and within 30 days from the time defect is discovered. Should the defect be Anchor's responsibility, prepaid freight charges will be credited and repair will be made at no charge or an equitable allowance made toward the purchase of a new Funbrella at the current Anchor list price. Such allowance will be up to full replacement for the entire 1-year period. This warranty is not assignable.
